

Reversible Windows

THE reversible double-glazed window follows the same principle as the turn and tilt product, although the sash swings outwards and reverses on itself, allowing the outer pane of glass to be cleaned from inside the room. The reversible window also provides the same fire escape facility offered by turn and tilt.