

French Doors

OUR French doors will transform any room. Following a traditional design, these allow natural light to flood into the room. French doors really come into their own during the summer months when both doors can be flung open, leading onto a patio or decking and giving easy access to the garden. Homeowners with no natural setting for our popular French doors need not despair. An existing window opening can be easily altered to accommodate French doors.