

Aluminium Curtain Wall Features

- Slim, constant 52mm sight lines for the mullion and transoms for visual consistency across a project
- Excellent thermal performance to achieve lowU values
- A technically advanced framing system which uses high quality components for long-term durability
- Intelligent design to ensure the quality of fabrication and installation
- The system can carry glazing units or insulated infill panels